ONE OBSTINATE JUROR

WAS ALL THAT STOOD OUT AGAINST ARENSDORF'S ACQUITTAL.

Twenty Hours of Discussion Falls to Change His Judgment and the Jury Gets His Discharge on His Assuring the Judge That His Decision Was Unfavorable—Big Crowd Forged.

STOCK CITY, April 18.—The arguments of counsel in the Hadlock murder case were closed Saturday 5 p. m. The last speaker being Hon. M. D. Connell. A recess was then taken, and when the court resumed again Judge Lewis instructed the jury.

The instructions were very full, and the jury retired to the jury room. The trial was continued until 10 o'clock, when the jury returned with a verdict.

The verdict was that the defendant was guilty of the murder of John Lewis. The jury also found that the defendant was a conspirator in the murder.

The judge then pronounced the sentence of death on the defendant. The jury then adjourned until the next day.

The trial was a very interesting one, and a large crowd of people gathered to watch the proceedings.

The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial lasted for several days.

The defendant was represented by a prominent lawyer, and the prosecution was also well represented.

The trial was held in a large hall, and the atmosphere was very tense.

The jury was deliberating for many hours, and the public was kept waiting outside.

The trial was a very important one, and the outcome was watched with great interest.

The jury was finally persuaded to return a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was sentenced to death.

The trial was a very successful one, and the justice of the law was upheld.

The jury was very brave, and they stood up to the pressure of the public.

SHUTTLEFFS.

—To-day was pay day for the Building Association.

—Leavitt Fisk, of the third ward, is dangerously sick with typhoid pneumonia.

—Sixty people came from Evansville this afternoon to attend the Gilmore concert.

—The signal service indications are clear weather, followed by light rains with variable winds.

—Bishop Brown, of Fond du Lac, will hold confirmation services in Janesville on Sunday, May 15th.

—The owner of the ladies purse recently lost on Main street will please call at this office.

—Parties wishing opera glasses for tomorrow evening should engage them of Prentice & Evenson at once.

—Only five prisoners are now under Sheriff Ward's charge. The jail has not been so empty for a long time.

—The divorce case of Emma Groves against H. V. Groves is on trial before Judge Bennett to-day.

—At seven o'clock this morning there was a runaway on Milwaukee street that scattered tobacco cases and stirred things up generally.

—Dick Rooney, at his meat market on the bridge, has the carcass of a fine fat bear, which he is cutting up into steaks for his customers.

—Jimmy Collins, of Edgerton, left Johnston, the Milwaukee champion, behind in two races at Western Union Junction yesterday.

—An ice dealer has no show with the coal and wood dealer at this time—although their wagons continue to pass and repass upon the streets.

—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Cloonan was held from St. Patrick's church this morning at nine o'clock. The Very Rev. E. M. McGinley officiated.

—James Gentle, of Johnston, is suffering from injuries inflicted on him by a frenzied horse. His jaw is broken and his head badly lashed.

—The Rev. Theodore Clifton, of Rockford, filled the Congregational pulpit yesterday, both morning and evening. His sermon aroused much favorable comment.

—Fred Putnam, now of Fargo, Dakota, but formerly a Janesville boy is happy. A nine pound boy has come into his home with the intention of making a prolonged visit.

—Gullbush Bros. received another importation of their celebrated horses Saturday night. Although they had a very stormy voyage, they all came through safe and in good shape.

—Ground has been broken for the building of a number of new dwelling houses in this city this spring, and it is said that a larger number of new houses will be built this season than has been seen in a number of years.

—Wisconsin companies entered for the National encampment in Washington, as reported by the committee, are the First Light battery, competing; Milwaukee Light Horse squadron; company A, 1st infantry; and company G, 3d infantry.

—There were several bright fires to the east and south of the city last night—indicating that straw stacks or something of that kind were burning. There was a bright illumination of the sky in that direction between eight and nine o'clock.

—The appalling accident—the collapse of the water tank at Palatine—by which five persons lost their lives, is detailed in our telegraph columns. The accident occurred at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The tank contained 50,000 gallons of water.

—John W. Manning, formerly of this city, was hurt in a railroad accident near St. Paul a few days ago. It is understood that his arm and shoulder were broken and his head badly cut. He will be brought here as soon as it is possible to move him.

—Funeral services over the remains of Frank Rogers were held in Court Street M. E. church yesterday afternoon. The Rev. T. DeWitt Peake officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Thomas Walker. A choir from the First M. E. church rendered appropriate music.

—Yesterday the Rev. Joseph Walto exchanged pulpits with the Rev. Mr. Forbush, of Milwaukee. Mr. Forbush is considered a very able man, and his sermon was listened to with much interest. It dealt with the development of progressive ideas in religion and science.

—Sundry bills growing out of the supposed cases of small-pox recently in the first and third wards were presented to the council on Saturday evening. These bills were for medical attendance, loss of time on account of "quarantine regulations," clothing, bedding, carpets, wages, family groceries, etc., and footed up a sum total of $245.84. The bills were ordered sent to the county for payment.

—Beloit Free Press.—A proposition is on foot to form a base ball league with Beloit, Janesville, Evansville, Baraboo and Sparta in the association. Our ball players would be highly pleased with such an arrangement, if there seemed a possibility of getting sufficient money out of the venture for paying expenses, which there is not. Beloit should have a good base ball club, however, this summer, and our ball tappers should not defer "getting in form" early in the season.

—Who set the fire in the court house park, that resulted in the destruction of so many valuable trees? This question is being asked by the supervisors, of the district attorney, and efforts are being made to find an answer. The vandal that would disregard public grounds either from malice or for personal gain deserves the most severe punishment that the law provides. Almost an irreparable injury has been done to the park and the authorities are anxious to find out the offender's name.

—Men, anxious for seats for to-morrow evening, began to gather at Prentice & Evenson's doors before six o'clock this morning. From that time until six o'clock the number of people

AMUSEMENTS.

CHORON'S BAND.

A fair sized audience, in which were many children, listened to Gilmore's concert this afternoon. The work of the musicians was thoroughly admirable both in the concerted numbers and as soloists. Gilmore himself, although no longer young, is as sprightly as ever, and shows even more skill as a director than when in the city before.

THE MAD OF HAMPTON.

"May Blossom" seemed likely to be one of the flowers that are "born to blush unseen" as far as Janesville was concerned. The curtain went up on a house that looked really lonesome. After the first act, however, ushers were sent out with handbills of free tickets, and the audience then assumed fair proportions.

The play presented was not a strong one. Besides that, it was a new one for most of the company and was therefore marked with more or less crudity which time will do away with. Miss Hamilton is a very capable actress and received much praise for her work. Some of her support was good while some of it was only passable. W. H. Crompton as "Uncle Bartlett" was probably the best, the principal criticism on his acting being in reference to his voice. Maud Thompson as "Little May" was another who deserved praise, her part being very well taken.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Modjeska will appear for the first time before a Janesville audience, as "Rosalind," in Shakespeare's "As You Like It." A Boston critic, speaking of her performance, says: "Mrs. Modjeska continued her successful engagement at the Hollis Street Theatre last evening, with the presentation of the character of Rosalind in Shakespeare's 'As You Like It.' The part of Rosalind is a woman's part, and Mrs. Modjeska is especially adapted to her charming grace of manner and versatility of interpreting and expressing changing thoughts and feelings. Her impersonation last evening of the maiden who, disguised as a boy, seeks her lover in the forest, was replete with those touches of nature that make her acting so enjoyable, and have justly placed her high in the favor of Boston audiences. While presenting the character of Rosalind, Mrs. Modjeska still keeps uppermost the underlying joyousness in the character, and the happiness of heart that will spring up in spite of the surroundings was admirably portrayed."

OBITUARY.

MRS. HANNAH HUNTER.

At six o'clock yesterday morning death sealed the life of Mrs. Hannah Hunter and the tired spirit went home to God. Mrs. Hunter was born in Windsor county, Vermont. She came west in 1845 and resided in Janesville, where she has since resided. At an early day her name was enrolled upon the records of the First M. E. church, and her life gave evidence of a well developed christian character. Mrs. Hunter was eighty-eight years old. Though bowed with the weight of years, she retained her faculties remarkably well and was noted for activity. She will be missed from the old homestead on Jackson street where she resided so long, and where her individuality was so thoroughly impressed. One daughter and a number of grand children are left to mourn.

The funeral will occur at the house at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, Rev. Thomas Walker, of the First M. E. church, officiating.

We give a 25 cent puff box with each 25 cent box of Tallow's Gossamer Powder.—Prentice & Evenson.

COMING EVENTS.

—The board of water commissioners will hold a regular meeting this evening.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a social at the home of Mrs. S. Rolston on Friday evening.

—Mrs. Modjeska is the greatest actress that is now on the American stage. At Myers new opera house to-morrow night.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32 will assemble in regular weekly session this evening—joice room in the Judd block, North Main street.

—Mrs. Modjeska and her great company will appear at Myers' new Opera house to-morrow night in Shakespeare's beautiful comedy "As You Like It."

—Regular meeting of the common council this evening. It is doubtful if a meeting will be held, as the tables are cleared, and there is nothing of importance to consider. The official terms of the old aldermen and all official expire to-day. The new aldermen and of-ficers elect will take possession of their respective offices to-morrow morning.

With each 35 cent box of Tallow's Gossamer Powder we give an elegant puff box.—Prentice & Evenson.

There is very little wear on clothes when you use Fairbanks' Soap.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 40 degrees above zero. Cloudy with cast wind.

At one o'clock p. m. the register was 59 degrees above zero. Cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 53 and 73 degrees above zero.
